

Biography

As a Montini Catholic High School student, John was a very well-rounded student. He was an honor roll student, a member of the National Honor Society, and a National Merit Commended Scholarship. John was also involved in Drama Club, Track, Letterman Club, and Student Council - voted in as Student Council President his senior year.

After Montini, John attended Marquette University earning his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Mathematics and Statistics. He received the Gold Medal Award for the highest GPA among graduating seniors in Arts and Science. Eventually, John went on to earn his Master Degree in Government from Florida State University, and his Doctorate in Political Science from the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee.

John has continued his career in Education, serving as an Assistant Professor of Political Science at the University of Houston, an Assistant and Associate Professor of Social Sciences at the University of Texas, Dallas. Currently, John is the Professor of Political Science at Loyola University, Chicago.

John has also had extensive Administrative Experience as Loyola University's Political Science Department Chair, Vice Provost, and Provost. He is the co-author of three books, and over 35 scholarly articles.

John even finds time throughout his busy days to give back to his community. He serves as the Board Member and President of District 68 School Board, a member of the Board of Directors for TBC Inc. (The Beijing Center, a study abroad Center in Beijing) and Treasurer and certified Referee for the Evanston YMCA Flying Fish Swim Club.
